LICENSES BEING PAID.

County and City Collector Have Been Busy for Past Two Days.

County Tax Collector Dickinson and Oity Tax Collector Etlis have been bus-By engaged for the past two days issuing licenses, or more appropriately speaking, occupational taxes. The law provides a tax for almost every concelvable occupation, and only the laborer and the domestic escapes.

A great many licenses have been paid, which has eaused a rush in both the county and city collectors' offices. Both officials, however, do not object to this, for they are gratified to know that those engaged in business have the willingness and the money to pay.

The revenue derived from city licensee in the course of a year amount to considerable and go a long way towards defraying the operating expenses of the municipality.
